Defendants Putnam, Crouch, and Salazar's Answer and Jury Demand

Defendants Ken Putnam, John Crouch, and Juan Salazar file their answer, denying the Plaintiff's allegations. Pursuant to Rule 8(b), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendants Putnam, Crouch, and Salazar deny each and every allegation contained in Plaintiff's Complaint. Defendants assert their entitlement to qualified, official, sovereign, and Eleventh Amendment immunity as they apply. Defendants also assert the affirmative defenses of statute of limitations and res judicata/collateral estoppel.

Defendants ask the Court to deny Plaintiff any and all relief demanded in his complaint and that they recover their costs including reasonable attorney's fees and such other relief as to which the Court deems they are entitled.

Defendants state the failure to fully and timely exhaust administrative remedies is a bar to a plaintiff filing suit in the federal court pursuant to 42 U.S.C. section 1997e(e).

Defendants demand a trial by jury.

Respectfully Submitted,
